*CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Avery Beuerman

Father, Mother, Parent, Maker, Liberator, and Giver of the Law,

Let us worship God the Creator.

Son, Jesus the Christ, Savior, Teacher, Healer, and Friend,

Let us worship God the Redeemer.

Spirit, Guide, Comforter, Wisdom, Agitator, Wind, and Fire,

Let us worship God the Sustainer.

Come let us worship the Triune God!

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty and ever-living God, you have given us grace, by our confession of faith, to acknowledge and worship your triune name in the majesty of your unity. Just as you are one O Lord, help us heal our division. In your mercy, forgive us when we fail to love you with our whole being and to love our neighbors, those whom you have also created to bear your image. Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at the last to see you in your eternal glory, one God, now and forever. Amen.

†*HYMN 1

“Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty”

NICAEA

GATHERING OF CHILDREN

All children through first grade are invited to Frampton Fellowship Hall (FFH) for special Summer Sundays activities. Older children are encouraged to remain with families for worship. Parents may meet their children in FFH after worship.

*HYMN 19

“God of Great and God of Small”

GOD OF GREAT AND SMALL

SECOND READING

John 16:12-15

SERMON

“Knowing God”

Sarah Chancellor-Watson

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: from The Second Helvetic Confession, 1561 (unison)

We believe and teach that God is one in essence or nature, subsisting in himself, all sufficient in himself, invisible, incorporeal, immense, eternal, Creator of all things both visible and invisible, the greatest good, living, quickening and preserving all things, omnipotent and supremely wise, kind and merciful, just and true. Notwithstanding we believe and teach that the same immense, one and indivisible God is in person inseparably and without confusion distinguished as Father, Son and Holy Spirit so, as the Father has begotten the Son from eternity, the Son is begotten by an ineffable generation, and the Holy Spirit truly proceeds from them both, and the same from eternity and is to be worshipped with both. Thus there are not three gods, but three persons, consubstantial, coeternal, and coequal; distinct with respect to hypostases, and with respect to order, the one preceding the other yet without any inequality. For according to the nature or essence they are so joined together that they are one God, and the divine nature is common to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

IN TODAY'S WORSHIP

We are joined today by TIM HUCHTON, President of Presbyterian Mo-Ranch Assembly in Hunt, Texas, at the 9:30 a.m. service. The Junior High Jubilee conference at Mo-Ranch has been a longtime destination for SCAPC youth and will be again next month.

TODAY'S USHERS are Roger Fleshman (captain), Sallee Benjamin, Maureen Herring, Leon Hinson, Katy Johnson, Jane Rasi, Wesley Simon, and Kandice and Mike Snow.

THE FLOWERS IN THE SANCTUARY are given in loving memory of Richard Carter "Dick" O'Ferrall, Jr. by Matthew, Andrew, and Peter Wilson, Jr. and all Alpine Campers.

MASKS ENCOURAGED: In light of the recent spike in Covid cases in our community, we encourage everyone to wear masks to worship. As a caring Christian community, our goal is always to keep one another safe. Remember that we do offer alternative seating in Frampton Fellowship Hall where the service is livestreamed to the large screen, and in the Phifer Library where the service audio is played.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PARENTS ON THE PLAYGROUND: After 9:30 a.m. worship, we encourage families to gather at the playground outside for 30 minutes to enjoy snacks and fellowship. Volunteers are needed to bring snacks each week. Please sign up on the bulletin board in Frampton Fellowship Hall or at scapc.org/summer-sundays.

SCAPC 101 NEXT SUNDAY: Our next SCAPC 101 will be next Sunday from 8:30-9:15 a.m. in the second floor conference room. This class is designed as an orientation for new members and visitors interested in joining our church...or for anyone wishing to learn more about SCAPC! We'll talk about our basic beliefs as Presbyterians, the history of SCAPC, and how you can get involved.

We will formally recognize all of our NEW MEMBERS from the last year during the 9:30 a.m. service next Sunday. If you are interested in joining or have any questions regarding membership, please contact Camille Zander, Membership Coordinator.

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS: "Experiencing the Spirit - The Power of Pentecost Every Day"

This class continues to meet during the month of June at 8:30 a.m. in the Phifer Library. The first Christians turned the world upside down. Why aren't we having the same impact today? The gift of Pentecost was not just for the early believers; it is for all of us. Discover that there are no excuses for watching the activity of God from a distance. He has chosen and equipped every believer for kingdom work. This class is a practical guide to allowing the Spirit to help you experience the power of God's great salvation in every area of your life.

YOUR PHOTOS NEEDED! We are in the process of preparing new print and online directories, and we need updated photos from you! Please email your individual/family photo to Katie Brendler. Photos do not need to be formal, however they do need to be current - taken within the last 6 months preferably. Professional photos can only be accepted if submitted with permission. If you wish, you may also contact Katie Brendler at katie@scapc.org to arrange a day for her to take your photo after church. The deadline is June 30.

To be added to the email list for the "QUATREFOIL" WEEKLY E-NEWSLETTER, sign up at scapc.org or text "SCAPC" to 22828. If you are a church member and are NOT receiving Quatrefoil, please email Hallie Boh at hallie@scapc.org.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S TUESDAY EVENING CIRCLE will be discussing new books this summer, and all ladies are welcome to attend! The group will meet in the Land Building on June 14, July 12, and August 9, beginning with wine and refreshments at 5:45 p.m. Their June book will be The Book of Longings and the July/August book will be The Invention of Wings, both by Sue Monk Kidd. For further information, please contact Gwen Wertz, Circle Chair, at gewertz@blanchardgold.com.

JULY SERMONS ON DEMAND: The pastoral staff plans to do a sermon series exploring specific aspects of faith in today's world each week and we invite your input! Each sermon title begins "God and ___". Some sample topics are Country, Suffering, Politics, People with Whom We Disagree, Prayer, The Common Good, Education, Discussing Difficult Issues, and Race. Let us know which one(s) interest you, or submit your own to Chris (chriscurrie@scapc.org) and Sarah (sarah@scapc.org). We will take the most prescient/frequent responses. Thank you, and we look forward to hearing from you!

SCAPC CARROLLTON CAMP is taking place July 25-August 5 at Paul Dunbar School, 9330 Freret Street. Come volunteer, cook a meal, or donate supplies! For details, visit scapc.org/carrollton-camp-volunteers.

CONGRATULATIONS are extended to Catherine and Durward Dunn on the birth of their grandson, Bryan Hastings Dunn, who was born on May 31, 2022 to parents Angela Gray and Durward Dunn.
