Nancy Ellis, Liturgist

The Lord our God gathers us together,

Surrounding us in love and tenderness.

Christ encounters us in our life together,

Asking us questions and leading us do to justice and extend grace.

The Holy Spirit blesses us,

Filling our lives with courage and wisdom.

May the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit encounter us as we are, but never leave us where we are.

May we live bravely and offer our praises in the love of the Trinity all our nights and days.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Good and gracious God, we give thanks that you have created this whole wide world and yet know us all by name. We thank you that you are present with us today and yet are preparing to lead us into tomorrow. As we worship together, forgive the things that we have done that we regret, forgive the things that we have failed to do that we regret, forgive all the times we have acted without love or thought, and grant us your mercy for unfinished tasks, unfulfilled hopes, and incomplete visions. As we worship, send your Spirit upon us to restore us to new life, to set us on new paths, to bring us from darkness to light, and to help us become hopeful people, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
