August 27, 2026

Dear Members of the Session,

One of my favorite prayers, attributed to Cardinal Newman, and often used to close the Presbyterian graveside committal service goes like this: 'O Lord, support us all the day long, as the shadows lengthen and the evening comes and this busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and our work is done. Then in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at the last; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.' It is a bookend prayer, to be offered up to God at the end of a life, but it is also a prayer I try to pray before bed each night. And it is a prayer that I put before us as we move from this summer season into the church's life and programming this fall.

This past week, I have had the opportunity to use some continuing education time to teach Reformed Theology in the Duke Divinity School hybrid M.Div. Program. It has been a real joy to get to teach and walk with PC(USA) students in our denomination, discerning the call to ministry, seeking to serve as pastors and leaders, and to use their gifts to think theologically and to serve the church. Thank you and the personnel committee for allowing me to be able to do this in the course of the church's life.

In our meeting, we look forward to engaging further Jonathan Haidt's book The Anxious Generation and using the book to think how technology might be wiring us and affecting us in our work as a session and church, and how Christian community might offer a refreshing alternative in relationship and community that what is available in a chatbot or doom scroll.

As we enter this fall season of the church's life, we have shifted some support staff responsibilities, which I will share further in the meeting. We are also preparing for the work of the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee, which continues to make good progress and engage with gifted candidates. To help me with the pastoral workload this fall, we will welcome back Harry Barrow for a short temporary interim stint in late September through mid-October, we will welcome Rev. Dr. Glen Bell of the Presbyterian Foundation on Scottish Heritage Sunday, and on Sunday, November 15, we will welcome Rev. Dr. Margaret Aymer, Dean at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary and Professor of New Testament. We will also be working with Austin Seminary on a special event on targeting young adults called Theology on Tap which will take place the afternoon of November 15 at The Columns, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Last but not least, all session members will receive stewardship packets and pledge cards at our meeting on August 31st so that you may discern your stewardship commitment for the coming year (2027). Stephanie November our stewardship chair will say more, but our hope and expectation is that 100% of the session will make a pledge commitment for the coming year. Stephanie wants to be able to report enthusiastically full session participation on Sunday, September 20th, the official kickoff the stewardship campaign. (Dedication Sunday is October 4th).

Welcome back after our summer break, I hope your caught your breath, and I look forward to joining you in the wonderful, impactful, and enriching ways you all make ministry happen inside and outside our walls for the sake of Jesus Christ.

Gratefully yours,

Chris

Minutes, Community Ministry Committee

August 10, 2026

Attendees: Elizabeth Artigues, Richard Ashmore, Karen Donaldson, Darlene Guillot, Cathy Franklin, Jo Quinton, Kathy Randall, Ann Van Horn

Agenda:
1. Liaisons should identify projects for Fall Day of Service, Saturday, Oct. 3 and extend invitations to agencies for Outreach Sunday/World Communion Day, Sunday, Oct. 4.

2. The committee discussed the need for Mission Market to be earlier than Nov. 29 -- possibly Nov. 8 or 15, depending on the church calendar -- because church attendance generally is lower on the Sunday after Thanksgiving.

3. Agency Updates. Blessing of the Backpacks at Okra Abbey was well attended by SCAPC volunteers and included good fellowship with older neighbors, and 10 children who received supplies. Berean Presbyterian Church also distributed items for adults and took the remaining backpacks and school supplies to be distributed there. Because a projected tropical storm that Wednesday closed Okra Abbey, Presbyterian Women combined their luncheon with Blessing of the Backpacks and rescheduled the catering orders from Wednesday until Saturday. Thus, PW and Community Ministry shared the cost of the event.

The committee discussed ways to increase participation next year: moving the time from mid-day to early evening. A Saints player helped a school supply event in Hollygrove the same afternoon which yielded a more significant attendance with TV news coverage.

The annual fundraiser for the New Orleans Mission is Nov. 13, and Darlene will attend. Because of the economy, some donors are backing out of their commitments.

Fourteen folks graduated in late June from Cafe Reconcile, and the Cafe hosted a career day to promote applications. Eight CM committee members will have lunch at Cafe Reconcile Friday, Aug. 14.

Program of Hope will resume full operation this week, including distribution of clothing items. Because the spires had to be removed, the front entrance had not been available for participants, so for several weeks they received toiletries, vouchers and bus passes only. Unfortunately, the news coverage about the spires included old footage and inaccuracies. Still, the number of participants who attend and rely on Program of Hope has doubled from about 50 to almost 100.

4. Financial Overview. The committee discussed partner priorities for the remainder of the quarter, particularly to supplement Okra Abbey. Liaisons will report shortly on other priority needs.

5. The committee discussed and reviewed designs for Community Ministry t-shirts, particularly for the Day of Service in the Fall and Spring so that volunteers can be identified easily. The idea was met with mixed reactions.

Ann Van Horn opened with prayer, and Cathy Franklin closed with prayer.

Respectfully Submitted by Cathy Franklin
